LINEN and COTTON ACT.

FROM October 1, 1784, the following additional duties commenced on linens wholly made of hemp or flax, and ſtuffs made of cotton, or cotton and linen, reckoning yard wide, viz.

For all linens made of hemp or flax, printed, dyed, &c. in Great Britain, (except thoſe dyed throughout of one colour) three farthings per yard.

For cotton ſtuffs, and cotton and linen mixed, dyed as aforeſaid in Great Britain, (not being linen gauzes ſprigged with cotton) under 3*s.* per yard in value, 1*d.* per yard.

For all ſuch ſtuffs as aforeſaid, worth 3*s.* per yard, or upwards, 2*d.* per yard.

New duties to be ſubject to the additional impoſts of 5 per cent. on the amount thereof, as granted by 19 Geo. III. cap. 25; 21 Geo. III. cap. 17: and 22 Geo. III. cap. 66.

Duties on linens to be collected and recovered in the ſame manner as thoſe impoſed by Act 10 Anne, cap. 19, and 12 Anne, cap. 9.

On or before October 1, 1784, ſtamps to be diſtribnted by the commiſſioners for managing the duties on linens, which may be renewed or altered.

The proviſions of former acts for raiſing the duties hereby enlarged, extend to this act.

From

From October 8, 1784, the following duties on licences to be paid, viz.

Every bleacher or dyer of cotton ſtuffs, &c. 2*l.* per annum.

From October 1, 1784, no perſon to bleach or dye any ſuch ſtuffs, without taking out a licence.

Theſe licences to be renewed annually.

Perſons bleaching, &c. without taking out a licence, and renewing the ſame, to forfeit 30*l.*

Perſons in partnerſhip need not take out more than one licence for one houſe.

Duties to be under the management of commiſſioners of Exciſe.

Bleachers and dyers to leave notice at the next Exciſe Office of their names and places of abode, and of their utenſils, on penalty of 50*l.*

Bleachers and dyers to make entry every ſix weeks.

The names and places of abode of the owners are to be ſpecified.

None need go further than the next market town to make entries.

The duties to be cleared within ſix weeks after entry, on penalty of forfeiting double the ſum left unpaid.

Officers may on requeſt, enter the houſes, &c. of bleachers or dyers, and take account of ſtock, and make report thereof to the commiſſioners.

A copy of the report to be left with the bleacher, &c. on penalty of 40*s.*

Officers

Officers empowered to make ſuch charge, are to be ſworn.

Officers may, at any time, take an account of ſtuffs in the poſſeſſion of any bleacher, &c.

All perſons obſtructing officers to forfeit 200*l.*

Stuffs prepared for bleaching or dying before they are meaſured by the officer, to forfeit 20*l.* for each piece.

Bleached goods not to be removed, until the officer has taken an account thereof, and marked the ſame, on penalty of forfeiture.

Bleachers, &c. who ſhall cut out the officer's mark to denote the meaſure, ſhall forfeit 50*l.*

Goods ſurveyed to be kept ſeparate from thoſe not ſurveyed.

No goods to be fraudulently concealed, on forfeiture of 50*l.* and alſo the goods.

Utenſils to be liable to arrears of duties.

Commiſſioners to provide frame marks, to denote the meaſure, and ſtamps to denote the duties.

Perſons counterfeiting ſtamps, to ſuffer death as felons.

Perſons ſelling counterfeit ſtamps, knowing them to be ſuch, to ſtand in the pillory, and forfeit 100*l.*

Every piece of ſtuff to be marked before it is bleached.

A note to be delivered to the bleacher or dyer, expreſſing the number of pieces, &c.

When frame marks become obliterated, they are to be renewed.

Stuffs, for which the duty has been paid, may be exported.

 The Compiler, ſince the Publication of his Handbills, has thought proper to change the Title of his Book to that of, "The London and Country Printers, Bookſellers, and Stationers Vade Mecum;" which he intends publiſhing annually, and hopes for the Countenance of the generous Public, as he hath ſpared no Pains to render it of general Utility both to Maſters and Journeymen, in the different Branches herein ſpecified.—He has alſo found it a difficult Taſk to obtain the Names of the real Maſter Letter-preſs Printers; therefore if any Miſtakes ſhould occur in them, (or in any others) by making the ſame known to him, they ſhall be carefully corrected.—And any Perſon, of either of the aforeſaid Buſineſſes, may have his Name inſerted, on his becoming a Subſcriber.—Pleaſe to addreſs to JOHN PENDRED, (No. 1,) Featherſtone-ſtreet, Bunhill-row; by whom all Orders (by Letter or otherwiſe) will be thankfully received, and ſtrictly adhered to.
